

Relief Team, Servant Leadership and Ethnic Unity Training

October 18, 2021 - January 3, 2022

Josiah Brown

has successfully completed the Free Burma Rangers Relief Team, Servant Leadership and Ethnic Unity Training organized by the Free Burma Rangers (FBR) and the Karen National Union (KNU). This individual has shown diligence, service, and sacrifice during this training and has set an example of leadership, unity of action and commitment for all to follow.

Training classes included:

Ethnic Unity
Leadership Principles
Map Reading & Drawing
Compass Reading
Land Navigation
GPS (Global Positioning System)
Landmine Removal
Swimming & Life Saving
Solar Power & Battery
Human Rights Violations Recording & Reporting

SALUTE Reporting
General Reporting
Video & Photography
Medical Training
Field Training Exercises
Physical Training
Rope Bridge Building
Poncho Raft
Rappelling
Good Life Club (GLC) Training

On behalf of the FBR and the KNU, thank you and God bless you.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "David Eubank".

David Eubank, Director, FBR

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Saw Slowly".

Saw Slowly, Training Commander

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Saw K'Paw Say".

Saw K'Paw Say, FBR Deputy Director

LOVE EACH OTHER · UNITE AND WORK FOR FREEDOM, JUSTICE AND PEACE ·
FORGIVE AND DON'T HATE EACH OTHER · PRAY WITH FAITH, ACT WITH COURAGE, NEVER SURRENDER